Consent to Office Policies

In order to provide you with dental treatment here at Lacey Family Dental, we need your consent to and acknowledgement of our office policies. Copies of the complete policies are posted in the reception area, available on our website, and are always available upon request. They are summarized below and we ask the patient (or parent/guardian) to initial for their consent/acknowledgment to each policy, and to sign at the bottom:

General Consent: This is consent to let us see you as a patient for mutually agreed upon treatment.

Please initial after reading _____

Financial Policy: You are responsible for payment for all services provided. Aside from the portion your dental benefits coverage may provide, full payment is due at the time of scheduling (cleanings and exams excused) unless other arrangements are made. Insurance benefits are always an estimate and any difference between estimated and actual coverage is your responsibility.

Please initial after reading _____

Cancellation Policy: At least 24 hours notice must be given for cancellations, otherwise a $75/hour cancellation fee will be assessed (and withdrawn from appointment deposit if applicable). Two missed "no-show" appointments or short-notice cancellations may result in patient dismissal. Please arrive before your scheduled time.

Please initial after reading _____

Privacy Policy: I confirm that I have been informed of my rights to privacy regarding my protected health information, under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA). I consent to the disclosure and use of my records (or my dependent's records) for uses as detailed in the Statement of Privacy Practices. I consent to allow voice/email messages.

Please initial after reading _____

I acknowledge and consent to these policies and confirm my understanding that the complete policies have been made available to me. I attest to the accuracy of all the information on this page.
